

---

Lorraine L. Auerbacher

Talented Musician

Former Wall Township resident Lorraine L. Auerbacher, Dennisport, Mass., died Aug. 11 in his home.

She was 72 years old.

Born in Newport News, Va., she grew up in West Orange and lived in Wall before moving to Dennisport in 1981.

She was a music teacher in Wall and on Cape Cod.

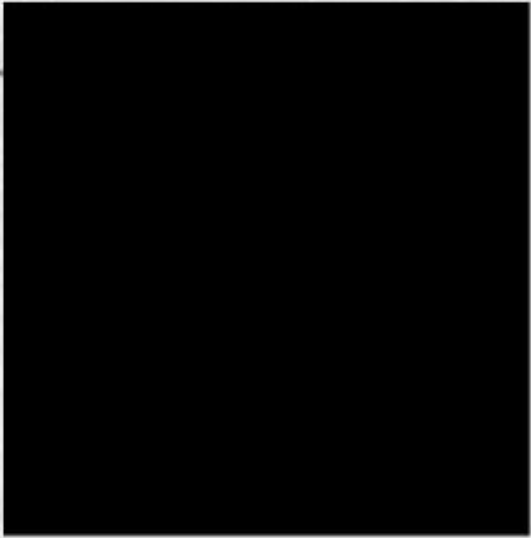

After retiring, she became a home health aide, and people she took care of loved her.

She was a member of the Civil Air Patrol, the University Women and Daughters of the American Revolution.

She was an accomplished artist and musician.

She knitted and crocheted beautifully and was a whiz at game shows.

Surviving are a son, Barry Auerbacher, Neptune; two daughters, Wendy Auerbacher, Brick, and Robin Henner, Sherman, Conn.; a sister, Patricia Root, Madison; an uncle, Al Priest, Osterville, Mass.; and four grandchildren, Dane, Carly, Jesse and Holly.

---

The Coast Star
Manasquan, NJ
Thursday, August 26, 1999

Page 24, Columns 3 & 4