

Plainfield.

Mrs. B. L. Dix is quite sick.

B. B. Ricker of Groton, was in town last week.

Charles Lombard is quite sick with neuralgia in the face.

Mrs. C. E. Woodward Jr. of Montpelier visited in town Friday.

George Lombard of Royalton is visiting his brother Charles.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Wells gave a whist party Saturday evening.

The meeting of the Ladies' Aid will be Wednesday afternoon.

The last of the excursionists to Boston arrived home Saturday.

Mrs. J. R. Kinney was in Barre last week with her sister, who is ill.

C. H. White attended the teachers' meeting at Brattleboro last week.

Mrs. Ira D. Spencer is at the Mary Fletcher hospital for treatment.

Mrs. Silas Willis has returned from visiting her daughter at St. Johns.

Mrs. Newcomb Kinney left for her home in Willimantic, Conn., last Saturday.

Mrs. S. S. Smith, who has for some time visiting at Orange, Mass., has returned.

At the husking at E. G. Bailey's about 200 bushels of corn were put in the crib.

Henry Bartlett contemplates moving with his family to Oregon about December 1.

Mrs. Laura McCrillis of Randolph, sister of Mrs. Charles Lombard, is visiting her.

The Daily Journal
Montpelier, VT
Monday, November 6, 1899