

ACTRESS WEDS BASEBALL MAN.

Miss Elsie Boyd Lombard, a member of the "Shore Acres" Company last season, was married to Mr. John Tomlinson Brush, of Indianapolis, president of the Cincinnati Baseball Club yesterday morning at eleven o'clock in the Unitarian Church of the Messiah, Thirty-fourth street and Park avenue. The Rev. Dr. Robert Collyer, pastor of the church, officiated.

The bride was given away by Mr. J. Schneider, an old friend of her father, the late George W. Lombard, of Baltimore. She wore a traveling gown of tan colored cloth. Miss Ida Chase was the maid of honor and Mr. William H. Schmidt the best man. Mr. and Mrs. Brush will live in Indianapolis.

Mr. Brush is said to be a man of some wealth. Miss Lombard made her debut with the Jefferson-Florence company, and has appeared in "A Temperance Town" and other plays.

Among those present were the Misses Ethel Winthrop, Julia Arthur, Ann Urhart, Nellie Brush, Miss Legrange, Miss Coman, Catchers Murphy and Vaughan, Pitchers Parrot, Chamberlain and Dwyer; First Baseman McCarty and the Messrs. McPhee, Smith, Holliday, Canavan, Hoy, Latham and Comiskey, of the Cincinnati, and Mr. Hempstead, of the New York Baseball Club, and Mr. Charles Byrne, of the Brooklyn.
