

SOCIETY will be interested to learn of the marriage of Mrs. Hemingway Gates of Oakwood av. and Lee Warren James which was quietly solemnized in the presence of the immediate families Wednesday evening at the home of the latter on Runnymede av. Rev. W. R. Funk, a close friend of Mr. James, performed the ceremony.

Both Mr. and Mrs. James are prominent and popular in social circles, have congenial tastes in literature and art and have travelled extensively. Mrs. James is the daughter of the late Senator Hemingway of Indiana.

Mr. James has attained fame in the legal profession and was the initial spirit in the recent sale of the N. C. R.

Mr. and Mrs. James left Friday noon for the east and will sail Dec. 4, on the Leviathan to spend four months on European soil. They will spend an extended period of that time at Cannes on the Riviera.
