

Woman Realtor at Stockton Is Called

STOCKTON, July 17.—Following an extended illness, Mrs. Bertha Adams Orr, who conducted a real estate and insurance business here for many years, died at her home yesterday. Mrs. Orr lived here practically all her life and was a member of the Soroptimist club and the Stockton realty board.

She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Arvie Robinson, of Stockton; a sister, Mrs. Evvia Kay, of Stockton, and a brother, Fred Lombard, of Maine. Private funeral services will be held tomorrow morning at the chapel of Frisbie & Warren.
