

The marriage of Miss Doris Alice Mercer and Dr. James Henry Lenier, Pharmacist Mate, U. S. N., took place on Thursday in St. Bernard's Church, Mt. Lebanon, and was followed by a breakfast at the Hotel Roosevelt. Rev. William P. Weirauch performed the ceremony.

The bridegroom is on furlough and will return tomorrow to his post.

The bride, daughter of Mrs. Alice H. Mercer, of Atlanta Place, Mt. Lebanon, was given in marriage by her brother, Albert H. Mercer, and attended by her sister-in-law, Mrs.

Charieron. She wore a white satin gown, finger tip veil and carried calla lilies. Her attendants were Mrs. Louis Roth, sister of the bridegroom and Misses Barbara and Clara Applebaum. Allen Tyson of New York was best man.

Albert H. Mercer. Pfc. Harold E. Leiner, brother of the bridegroom, served as best man.

The bride attended a finishing school in Paris, France, for three years, following her graduation from Peabody High School. Dr. Lenier is a graduate of the Ohio College of Chiropody.
