

Ripley Ramblings.

H. Eimers starts for California shortly, we understand, and proposes to move his family there in the near future.

The calico apron party held at J. Newberry's last Friday evening, in Wattlesburgh, was well patronized, and something over $3 was taken in dime collections for the Church.

Miss Maggie Rogers slipped and fell on the side-walk in front of the postoffice last Friday, dislocating her shoulder.

Miss Eunice Wilcox is lying dangerously ill at the residence of her brother-in-law, S. Jones, with pneumonia.

Mrs. E. W. Tucker, of Lombard, died at her residence last Thursday morning, after a long and painful illness. She was buried last Saturday.

The Westfield Republican

Westfield, NY

Wednesday, February 11, 1885

Page 3, Column 5