

Lombard - Bombard

A very pretty wedding was solemnized on Saturday evening, April 4 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Garfield Barrett at 5 Broad street, Plattsburg, N. Y., when Miss Marjorie Bombard daughter of Mrs. Nellie Bombard, Verdun, Que., was united in marriage to Ray H. Lombard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy S. Lombard of Chazy. Rev. G. C. Cornell of Chazy performed the ceremony.

The bride was attired in brown with a corsage of sweet peas. The matron of honor, Mrs. G. L. Barrett, was attired in royal blue and wore a corsage of American Beauty roses.

The wedding was attended by Mr. and Mrs. Guy Lombard, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Barrett, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Lombard and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Lombard.

Both the bride and groom attended Chazy Central Rural School.

After the ceremony the newlyweds and guests adjourned to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Wells of Chazy, for the reception.

The happy couple were recipients of many beautiful and useful gifts. After the honeymoon to points in Canada, Mr. and Mrs. Lombard returned to Plattsburg to make their home.
