

Miss Mary Bradford Smith to Be Bride Of Mr. Kenneth B. Lumbard February 2

Ceremony Will Be Held in Trinity Episcopal
Church in Menlo Park

By Cholly Francisco

ONE OF THE first weddings of February will be on the second, when Miss Mary Bradford Smith and Mr. Kenneth B. Lumbard will be married in Trinity Episcopal Church in Menlo, of which the bride's father, Rev. Ralph Parsons Smith, is the rector, and which she has attended all her life. Her father will read the service, and the ceremony will probably be followed by a small reception at the home of the bride elect. Their honeymoon will be in the South, where they will motor, and after their return, their home will be in Palo Alto, where they have taken a little English type house of white-washed brick.

Miss Smith, who attended Castilleja School, is the sister of Mrs. W. A. Newcomb and of Miss Laura Smith. Her fiance is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn R. Lumbard of Palo Alto, and is a graduate of Stanford.
