

---

Chose Easter Sunday for Day of an ugly Suicide.

---

Ithaca, April 20 (A. P.).—Seated in a crouching position on a cracker box, with a pool of blood at his feet, Henry Lumbard, a carriage trimmer of Peruville, a few miles east of here, was found dead by his wife yesterday afternoon.

Lumbard had sent his wife to Easter service in the little village church and then went to the attic, where he cut the arteries in his left arm with a razor.

---

The Buffalo Morning Express

Buffalo, NY

Tuesday, April 21, 1908

Page 9, Column 4