

A YOUNG MAN OF WHAT?—Speaking of James V. Martin, who married Miss Lizzie Marshall at San Jose last week, the San Francisco Chronicle says: "He lived with a relative in this city until recently, when his health compelled him to seek a change in a ranch life. He made visits to Los Angeles, which may have led to the mistake. He is reputed to be very wealthy, a fortune having been left him by his father. While in the city he was engaged in the liquor business of E. Martin & Co. He is a very stylish young man and well known in society. His hasty marriage will doubtless occasion as great a surprise in this city as it did at San Jose."

Daily Intelligencer

Seattle, WA

Tuesday, May 19, 1885

Page 5, Column 4