

Hines—Lumbard

Miss Elda Lumbard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. LaVerne Lumbard of Etna, and Leo Hines, son of Rollin Hines of Cortland, were married at 8 p.m. Saturday by the Rev. A. H. Bell of Ithaca, who had solemnized the marriage of the bride's parents.

About 18 guests attended the ceremony, which was performed at the Lumbard home, where baskets of garden flowers were used as decorations.

Dressed in pale yellow silk jersey, the bride was given in marriage by her father. Her sister-in-law and only attendant, Mrs. Ruth Lumbard, had a beige-colored outfit. Both the bride and Mrs. Lumbard had flowered headdresses. The bride's brother, Mervin Lumbard, of Syracuse was best man.

The new Mrs. Hines has been employed by Rotschild Brothers, and Mr. Hines is with the GLF at Big Flats, where the couple will make their home.

Mrs. Hines was feted at a linen shower given by Miss June Maughan, and at a variety shower at which Mrs. Dorothy Newman was hostess to employes of Rothschilds.
