

Anniversary Party For Pioneer Couple In Wausau Tonight

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lombard Celebrate Golden Wedding Anniversary

Golden wedding bells rang today for Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lombard of 2232 Sixth street, Wausau. Mr. and Mrs. Lombard have lived in Wausau during the fifty years of their married life.

Mr. Lombard is 72 years old and Mrs. Lombard is 68. Both have good health. Mr. Lombard is employed by the D. J. Murray Manufacturing company of Wausau.

The six children of the elderly couple, with their families and a few friends, are celebrating the golden wedding anniversary tonight.

Twenty-seven guests were entertained at dinner at 5:00 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lombard. This evening the dinner guests and additional friends will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Eberlein, 2334 N. Sixth street, for an evening party and program. Mrs. Eberlein is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lombard.

Gold and Green

The Lombards' golden anniversary dinner table was charmingly decorated in gold and green to symbolize the spirit of the event. Six children and ten grand children were among the dinner guests.

The Rev. F. J. Turner of the Methodist church will attend the reception for Mr. and Mrs. Lombard tonight and will speak. Solos will be sung by Mrs. Howard Lombard and Marshall Hulbert. Mrs. H. H. Wabers, a daughter, will give a reading and Miss Marjory Lombard, a granddaughter, will dance.

Forty guests have been invited to the program by Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Eberlein.

Wisconsin Pioneers

The six children of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lombard are: Howard, Ross and Eugene of Milwaukee; Ernest Mrs. H. H. Wabers and Mrs. A. H. Eberlein of Wausau.

Frank Lombard was born at Stockton, Portage county, Wisconsin in 1857. Mrs. Lombard was born at Amherst in the same county in 1861. The couple was married at Stockton in 1880 by the Rev. Charles Coates.

Mr. and Mrs. Lombard came to Wausau immediately following their marriage. Frank Lombard became a lumberman and continued in the lumber industry for many years.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Lombard are members of the First Methodist church of Wausau.
