JUDGE PLACES WOMAN ON TWO-YEAR PROBATION

LANSING, Mich., Oct. 22.—(AP) —Pleading guilty to a charge of attempted arson, Mrs. Edith Christie, 50, of Big Rapids, was given two years' probation Tuesday by Circuit Judge Charles B. Collingwood.

The woman was alleged to have set fire to the home in Leslie of the late Orville Lumbar, her father.

The woman was sentenced following a conference with Judge Collingwood. He made no comment in sentencing her.

Mrs. Christie had previously confessed setting the house on fire to state investigators. The fire was put out before it had reached much headway.
