

Walter Patterson Sr.

Walter Patterson, Sr., aged 73, engineer and contractor, died Saturday in his home, 318 Birmingham avenue, Avalon. He was born in Philadelphia and was chief engineer of the Philadelphia and Erie Railroad in the early seventies. He later entered the contracting business. He was a member of the Roman Catholic Church. He leaves his widow, Mrs. Helen Stewart Patterson; five daughters, Mrs. W. H. Hyde, Miss Mary Louise, Miss Agnes Gertrude, Miss Helen Augusta and Miss Gertrude Patterson; and four sons, Walter, Jr., William, Francis H. and Henry S. Patterson.

The Pittsburgh Gazette Times
Monday, September 8, 1919
Page 3, Column 5
"The Death Roll"