

COUSIN WEDS AT HOME OF MRS. GARRET HOBART

Mrs. Garret A. Hobart, of Paterson, widow of former Vice President of the United States, announced yesterday the marriage at her country home last Thursday of Wallace H. White, Jr., M. C. of Lewiston, Me., and Miss Nina Lunn, of Auburn, Me. Representative White is a grandson of the late United States Senator Frye, of Maine, and a cousin of Mrs. Hobart.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Henry R. Rose, formerly of Auburn, Me., and now pastor of the Church of the Redeemer, Newark, and took place at Mrs. Hobart's country home "Ailsa Farm," Haledon, near Paterson. Dr. Rose is well known here as a famous lecturer and has addressed most of the Masonic lodges in this city. Mrs. Hobart is very well known here and frequently comes to this city to attend meetings of the D. A. R. and New Jersey Society of the Colonial Dames of America and other patriotic societies.
