

Georgia Lumbard Weds Lieut. Lemon At Fort Lawton

In the late afternoon at the little post chapel at Fort Lawton recently, Miss Georgia Lumbard became the bride of Lieutenant LeRoy Russel Lemon. Chaplain Willis Berger read the service. Mr. Edward Heisler, a tenor formerly with the Chicago Grand Opera Company, sang "Because" before the wedding march, with Mr. Harold Hanson at the organ.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Frances Lumbard and the late Mr. George A. Lumbard, and granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jobst, Seattle pioneers. For her wedding she wore a pale gray dressmaker suit with matching halo hat and veil. Her corsage was a cluster of orchids.

Mr. Frank Jobst, Seattle pioneer, the

Mr. Jack Jobst Sullivan, the bride's cousin, gave her away. Mrs. Lumbard wore a dark green wool costume and a corsage of yellow and burgundy orchids for her daughter's wedding.

A reception was held after the ceremony at the Washington Athletic Club.

Miss Lumbard attended Glendora Foothills School in Glendora, California, and the Collegiate and Cumnock Schools for girls in Los Angeles. She was a drama student at the University of Washington and at the Pasadena Playhouse. Lieutenant Lemon is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Lemon of Columbus, Ohio, and was in theatre work in Pasadena.

The Seattle Times

Seattle, WA

Tuesday, December 8, 1942

Page 19, Column 4