

HAMPSHIRE COUNTY.

At the special election for county commissioner in Hampshire county, last week, only about 600 votes were cast, and of these E. H. Lyman of Westhampton, the republican candidate, has 450.

The February term of the superior court for the trial of civil cases will sit in Northampton on Tuesday, Feb. 21st. The breach of promise case between Mr Cowles of North Hadley and Miss Russell of Pelham will be tried again at this term, the jury failing to agree at the last term.

Electa S. Lombardi, wife of Benjamin Lombard, jr., of Hadley, was sent to the house of correction on Friday for thirty days for stealing clothing from Cornelius Briscoe of Belchertown; and she is also to be tried this week for adultery with Henry Washington, a colored man.

Springfield Republican

Springfield, MA

Wednesday, February 8, 1860

Page 4, Column 1