

Moonlight Wedding Held at Little Brown Church.

The Little Brown Church in the Vale, flooded with moonlight, was the scene of the wedding of Miss Mabel Lucille Lambert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Lambert Charles City, and Forrest Hinders, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hinders of Bristow at 12:01 a. m., Sunday. Marriage vows were taken just as the bride reached her birthday anniversary, the Rev. Wm. Kent reading the single ring ceremony in the presence of relatives and friends.

Nuptial music was provided by Miss Lorraine Tack of Greene.

A white mousseline de sole redingote over white satin was worn by the bride. The gown was floor length with puffed sleeves. She had an arm bouquet of pink roses tied with white satin ribbon.

Miss Bernice Hinders of Bristow, sister of the groom, served as bridesmaid.

The groom was attended by Milford Christensen of Nashua, cousin of the bride.

Sunday afternoon at five o'clock a three-course dinner was served twenty guests at the home of the bride's parents. The wedding white cake had white frosting edged with rosebuds and lovebirds and was topped with a miniature Little Brown Church with tiny evergreens,

Guests from out-of-town at the wedding dinner were the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hinders, John Hinders and Miss Berniece Hinders of Bristow, Milford Christensen of Nashua. Miss Lorraine Tack of Greene and Leo Houser of Spencer.
