

— Hymeneal —

LOMBARD-McCORMICK

The marriage of Miss Ruth A. Lombard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leon H. Lombard of 111 Stratford avenue to Lieut. F. Howard McCormick, of Seattle, Wash., a member of the aviation section, signal reserve corps, stationed at Millington, Tenn., will take place tomorrow afternoon at 4:30 o'clock in the First church of Christ Congregational. Rev. Dr. James E. Gregg, former pastor of the church, now president of Hampton institute, Hampton, Va., will perform the ceremony.

Miss Elizabeth G. Knapp of Boston will be the bridesmaid and Charles Brubaker of this city will be the best man. The girl ushers will be four class-mates of the bride-to-be at the Wheelock kindergarten training school in Boston, Miss Elizabeth Spelman of Cambridge, Miss Harriet Pratt of Attleboro, Arlene King of Northampton and Miss Marjorie Hemingway of Suffield, Conn. The wedding march will be played by Prof. Alfred T. Mason.

Only invited guests will be admitted to the church. The wedding has been hastened owing to orders received by the prospective bridegroom and is to be carried out with simplicity. The decorations at the church will be of syringas and ferns. At the house the decorations will be yellow daisies and other wild flowers of the same coloring, combined with ferns.

...died with her.
A reception will be held at the home following the ceremony for the friends of the bridal couple. They will leave shortly afterward for a brief wedding trip.

Miss Lombard is a graduate of the Pittsfield high school in the class of 1912 and of the Wheelock kindergarten training school in Boston in the class of 1915. Lieut. McCormick is a graduate of the Spokane, Wash., high school and of Washington state college in the class of 1915. The young man worked at the local General Electric plant as an electrical engineer for two years, enlisting in the army last fall. He was sent to Camp Devens as a private and has since received his commission as lieutenant.

The Berkshire Eagle

Pittsfield, MA

Friday, July 5, 1918

Page 6, Column 3