

Washington County Court.

The adjourned term of the Washington County Court was begun yesterday. The most important business done was the granting of two divorces:

Emma J. Tucker from Lewis E. Tucker, for intolerable severity; the petitioner allowed to resume her maiden name of Emerson, and given the custody of her child.

Augusta M. Lombard, of Plainfield, from George Lombard, for intolerable severity and refusal to support; and custody of the child, John Gray Lombard, given to the petitioner.

The case of Oughtney Jangraw vs. Frank Leazer.
