
MARRIAGES

BRAUTIGAM-LOMBARD — Married November 14th, 1914, in Hanford, Cal., John Clifford Brautigam and Olive Elida Lombard.

Amid floral surroundings in which profusive decorations of chrysanthemums and greenery predominated, the nuptials took the form of a pretty home affair at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Lombard on East Myrtle street, Saturday at 5 o'clock p. m. The vows were spoken beneath a festoon of smilax and chrysanthemums, beautifully arranged, Rev. W. C. Loomis officiating.

The couple were unattended during the ceremony, and all the appointments were simple though pretty and impressive.

A sumptuous wedding feast was served following the ceremony, and at its close the bride and groom left on a short wedding trip.

The bride has been a resident of this

The bride has been a resident of this city during the past six years and during that time has gained a wide circle of friends especially among the young people of the First Methodist church, where she has been active in religious work.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brautigam and has lived at Armona for a number of years.

Among the many beautiful and useful gifts of which the couple were the recipients, was a set of silver sent by the bride's grandmother from New York state, which is prized for its antiquity, and its patterns of other days.

On their return from the wedding tour, Mr. and Mrs. Brautigam will reside at Armona.

The Hanford Kings County Sentinel

Hanford, CA

Thursday, November 19, 1914

Page 3, Column 6