

Mrs. Lee W. James Dies In New York

Mrs. Lee Warren James, wife of a former Dayton attorney, died yesterday morning at her residence in Glen Cove, Long Island, N. Y.

Mrs. James was the daughter of the late Sen. James Hemenway of Booneville, Ind. Born in Booneville, she had lived in Dayton many years before moving east.

Among the survivors are her husband, Lee Warren James; her mother, Mrs. James Hemenway; three sisters, Mrs. Kathryn McGusty of New York city, Mrs. Donald W. Wilson of Long Island, N. Y., and Mrs. Robert Schenck of Dayton; a son, James Hemenway Gates of Dayton, and six grandchildren.

Services will be conducted Monday at 11 a.m. in St. Johns of Lattingtown, Locust Valley, Long Island, N. Y.

The Journal Herald

Dayton, OH

Saturday, May 12, 1956

Page 30, Column 1