RACHEL RIGGS' BETROTHAL ANNOUNCED

The betrothal of Miss Rachel Riggs of Los Gatos, senior at the University of California, and Talcott Gawne of Oakland, was announced at a dinner given in Rainbow Lane at the Fairmont Hotel Saturday evening.

Miss Riggs is a member of Alpha Gamma Delta sorority and Gawne is affiliated with Tau Kappa Epsilon and Delta Sigma Pi and a graduate with the 1923 class.

Both are well known on the campus and belong to old and well-known families. Miss Riggs is the grand-daughter of Zadoc A. Riggs, the first white settler in Almaden township, who purchased the land from the Spanish grant in 1852 and again from the United States government after a resurvey had been made.
