Miss Rachel Riggs of this city, who is to be married in March, has been the inspiration for many charming affairs both in Berkeley and Los Gatos, and in the Eastbay district.

Miss Eloise Hellwig of Mt. Eden entertained at a luncheon Saturday with Miss Riggs as the honored guest. The Saturday previous another luncheon was arranged for her, the guests being members of Alpha Gamma Delta sorority. Covers for ten were laid at the Berkeley Inn. This Saturday Miss Helen Faull of A. neda will give a mah jongg-bridge tea at her home, Mrs. Richard Spreckla of Los Gatos entertained the brideto-be and friends at dinner Wednesday evening and on February 24. Mrs. Will Riggs of Los Gatos, has arranged a dinner honoring both Miss Riggs and her fiance, Mr. Talcott Gawne. Miss Eva Whitthorne of Oakland has issued cards for a bridge tea on March 1 with Miss Riggs as the motif and on March 8 Miss Elizabeth Cameron of Los Gatos will give a mah jongg tea at Hotel Lyndon for the popular bride-elect.

Oakland Tribune

Oakland CA Monday, February 18, 1924

Page 9, Column 2