

Mrs. Lombard

Mrs. Lillian Franklin Lombard, 86, of 24 Dale St., pianist for the Wednesday Bible Luncheon at the S & W Cafeteria for the past 15 years, died in a hospital Wednesday after a long illness.

She was a native of Springfield, Mass., and had lived in Asheville for the past 17 years. She was a member of the Asheville Gospel Chapel and the DAR.

A brother, James Franklin of Teaneck, N. J., is the only survivor.

Services will be held at 4 p. m. Friday in the chapel of Groce Funeral Home.

The Rev. James A. Innes will officiate and burial will be in Home Cemetery. Pallbearers will be Jacob Bishop, Andrew C. Stoll, J. L. Innes, Dickinson Reed, Ralph Tilly, and John Hall.

Asheville Citizen-Times

Asheville, NC

Thursday, December 16, 1965