

Word was received here by Florence Lombard that his brother, Charles Lombard, had died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. T. W. Decker in San Francisco, California. It is expected the remains will be brought to Lapeer for burial. Deceased was well and favorably known here. For many years he was salesman in White & Hevener's dry goods store. He was also an alderman in the city for a long time.

Flint Journal

Flint, MI

Thursday, March 18, 1920

Page 12, Column 5