

Clinton J. Lahr

HASTINGS—Clinton J. Lahr, 68, of 128 West Grand died suddenly early today while walking past the residence at 614 South Hanover. Until recently he had been employed for 20 years by the Frank Sage Lumber Co., and for a similar period of years prior to that by the former Wool Boot Co. here. He was a member of the Methodist church. Surviving are his wife, Anzoletta; a sister, Mrs. Esther Brill of Hastings; and a brother, James Lahr of Washington.

Battle Creek Enquirer

Battle Creek, MI
Friday, April 1, 1949

Page 18, Column 2