

A WOODEN WEDDING AT DETROIT.—We learn from the Detroit Tribune that Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Hopson celebrated the fifth anniversary of their marriage by a wooden wedding, at the residence of George W. Sprague, Esq., at Detroit, Mich. Many presents of an unique, ornamental and useful character were received by the happy couple, and a pleasant time was enjoyed by all present. The parties were formerly residents of Vermont, and are well known in the western part of this county. They have our most cordial wishes for their future happiness, trusting that prosperous gales may waft them on to the crystal, silver and golden anniversaries.
