

DIED.

In Gorham, Jan. 26, Ada Pearl, infant twin daughter of John and Ada Morton, aged 16 months and 27 days.

In Hallowell, Feb. 5, Mrs. Jane A., wife of Andrew Johnson, formerly of Rockland, aged 43 years.

In Hallowell, Feb. 5, Nellie, daughter of Warren H. Moore, aged 6 years.

In Bangor, Jan. 26, Frank H. Sellers, aged 32 years 3 months.

In Temple, Jan. 7, Mrs. Lizzie Fletcher, aged 27 years,—daughter of Dr. S. F. Small.

In Litchfield, Jan. 4, Stone G. Emerson, aged 33 years 3 months.

In Norridgewock, Jan. 16, S. D. Ames, Esq., aged about 74 years.

In Skowhegan, Jan. 19, Obed Smith 55 years; 20th, Ezra Whitney, aged 60 years.

In Steuben, Jan. 19, Mrs. Eliza A. Leighton, aged 47 years 19 days.

In Orrington, Feb. 4, Mrs. Hannah B. Goodwin of Winterport, aged 82 years 9 months.

At Cleveland, Queensland, Australia, Mrs. Temperance Perkins Campbell, late of Redbank, Australia. Mrs. Campbell was the daughter of Major Thomas Stevens of Brooksville, Me., who fought under Washington at the battle of Brandywine, in the American revolution, at which time Maj. Stevens commanded the artillery. [Bangor papers please copy.]

Portland Daily Press

Portland, ME

Friday, February 8, 1878