

Turlock Resident Dies On Visit To Son in Colorado

TURLOCK, Oct. 8.—Mrs. Emily Wilcox, 75, resident of Turlock for the past eight years, died at the home of a son, W. W. Wilcox, Denver, Colorado, yesterday, according to word received by her son, R. V. Wilcox, of this city.

Mrs. Wilcox and her husband, E. D. Wilcox, had been visiting in Colorado for several weeks at the time of her death. The body will be brought here for burial under the direction of the Geckler Funeral Home.

Modesto News-Herald

Modesto, CA

Sunday, October 9, 1927

Page 5, Column 5