

—The Morrisville Observer says: Our readers, no doubt recollect the death of the venerable Mrs. Polly Cleveland, which occurred on the 23d of last month, at the age of 100 years and 2 months. Two weeks after, March 9, her brother, Jacob Lumbard, died at Ætna, Tompkins county in the 99th year of his age. Just two weeks subsequently, March 23, Miss Margaret Lumbard (half sister of Mrs. Cleveland, and familiarly known as "Aunt Peggy,") died at Westfield, Chautauqua county, aged 88 years. Miss Lumbard's remains were brought here yesterday and interred by the side of her brother Augustus, who died several years ago. Thus, of four brothers and sisters, widely separated, who were living on the 23d of last month, only one survives.

The DeRuyter New Era

DeRuyter, NY

Thursday, April 5, 1883

Page 1, Column 3