
DEATH AT GREENE OF OLD RESIDENT

Lucius Lumbard Has Fatal
Attack of Apoplexy
—Notes.

(Special to The Republican.)
Greene, Nov. 13.

Lucius Lumbard, one of Greene's old and well known citizens died at his home on South Chenango street about three o'clock this morning. He was seventy-six years of age. He was stricken with apoplexy Friday and has been unconscious since. He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. H. H. Lansing of Fayetteville, and Mrs. J. F. Denison of Greene, and one son, John W. Lumbard of White Plains. His wife died about seven years ago.

The funeral will be held from his late home Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock.
