

---

WEDDINGS

---

Gowin—Highet

Fifty blue-uniformed Girl Guides, holding high the flags of their companies, formed a guard of honor as Mr. and Mrs. E. Alton Gowin left the altar of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church, before which the Rev. F. D. Roxburgh had united them in marriage, on Wednesday evening. The bride was Alexander Jeffery, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Highet, and the bridegroom the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Gowin of Ryderwood, Washington. The church was decorated with palms and ferns and rich-hued autumn foliage for the ceremony, which took place at 8 o'clock.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white georgette, and bridal veil lent by Mrs. J. A. Spalding, an old friend, who wore it as a bride. She carried Mrs. Calvin Coolidge roses of a deep pink shade. Her only ornament was a white gold wrist watch, the gift of the bridegroom. The bride's gift to the bridegroom was a gold signet ring.

The Misses Florence Williams and Blanche Thornton, who were chosen by the bride as her attendants, wore gowns of georgette in harmonizing shades of pink, and carried carnations in the same tones. Little Betty Muter was a dainty flower girl in a frock of mauve georgette. She carried a basket of pink and white asters. Mr. Jas Mason was the bridegroom.

Miss Marjorie Roxburgh played the

Miss Marjorie Roxburgh played the wedding music, and Mrs. F. D. Roxburgh sang "O Promise Me" during the signing of the register. The bridegroom's gift to the bridesmaids and the pianist and soloist were hand-painted scarves in rich colorings, and to the flower girl a signet ring. The best man received a white gold watch chain and penknife.

Mrs. J. M. Highet, mother of the bride, wore a gown of black georgette beaded in jet and smart black hat. Her corsage was of deep red carnations.

Following the ceremony about thirty-five guests repaired to the Norwood Masonic hall, where a wedding supper was served. Asters in shades of pink and purple were used on the supper table. In the course of the toasts, congratulations were tendered the mother and father of the bride, who celebrated their thirty-second wedding anniversary this week. Miss Mary Perring recited and Miss Betty Muter sang.

Later in the evening Mr. and Mrs. Gowin left on a honeymoon trip through the Canadian Rockies, and will then go to Ryderwood, Washington, where they will make their home. The bride traveled in a peacock blue French crepe tailored dress and tailored blue coat with hat to match. Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Williams and Mr. and Mrs. A. Williams of Ardrossan and Miss A. Mitchell of Evansburg. The bride was well known in Girl Guide circles, having had companies at All Saints' and at Bonnie Doon.

The Edmonton Journal

Edmonton, Alberta, Canada

Thursday, October 6, 1927