

Miss Aili Havana, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gust Havana, and Sgt. Arthur M. Gowin were quietly married in Chehalis Saturday evening at 8 o'clock by Justice of the Peace William Bartz. Accompanying the bridal party to Chehalis were Mr. and Mrs. Gust Havana, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Rantanen and Mrs. B. C. Marsh. The bride's dress was aqua blue with corsage of gardenias and bouvardias, and she wore a gardenia in her hair. Miss Gertrude Rantanen as bridesmaid wore teal blue with pink camellia and pink rosebud corsage. Harry Conradl of Port Lewis was best man. Mrs. Gust Havana, mother of the bride, wore a wine frock with corsage of pink rosebud and bouvardia. Later in the evening the bridal party were honored with a reception at the home of the groom's sister and brother-in-law, B. C. Marsh of Winlock. Mrs. Ted Lacey served the lovely three-tiered wedding cake; Mrs. Russell Gowin, Sr., served the groom's cake, and Mrs. Robert Stillner, Mrs. Lillian Erskine, Mrs. Donald Jones, and Miss Dottie Winslow assisted about the rooms.

Complimenting the couple were Mr. and Mrs. Gust Havana, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Rantanen, Miss Gertrude Rantanen, Mrs. Adele Oja, Miss Alli Oja and Johnny Hakola, Miss Norma Mikkila, Miss Miriam Hekkanen, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Doty, Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Eckenbrack, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Lacy, Corporal and Mrs. Robert Stillner, Mr. and Mrs. Buck Grieves, Mrs. Edna L. Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. Emery R. Curi, Willis Backman, Wm. Butterick, Miss Patty Marsh and Miss Laurel Marsh, all of Winlock; Mrs. Lillian Erskine and Tex Palmer of Rydewood; Mr. and Mrs. Russell Gowin, Sr., sons Edward and Russell, Jr., and Miss Dottie Winslow, all of Castle Rock; Mrs. Snyder of Seattle; Miss Katherine Kierz, Miss Julia Lombard and John Norman of Chehalis; Corporal Ray Hosley, Corporal Jack Jastram and Harry Conrad of Fort Lewis; Edgar F. Palmer, Pat Townsend and Philip Youngblood, all of the U. S. S. Colorado, and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Crocker of Klaher.

Mrs. George Brown was called to Warrenton, Oregon, the first of the week where she attended the funeral of her nephew, Harry Camm, Monday. Mr. Camm was drowned while fishing, near Nehalem, Oregon. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Camm and was born in Winlock, moving with his parents to Oregon a number of years ago.
