
Oakland Suited Him.

G. B. Lumbard, an old friend of Councilman H. D. Rowe, has come to Oakland to reside for at least a year. With him is his wife and four children. They have taken the old Pardee home at Ninth avenue and East Twentieth street.

Mr. Lumbard comes from Iowa City, Iowa. He is president of the Iowa Lumber Company. An amusing circumstance of Mr. Lumbard's taking up his residence in Oakland, is that he originally intended moving to Los Angeles. He first visited Mr. Rowe here, however, and became so infatuated with Oakland that he decided to go no further.

Oakland Tribune

Oakland, CA

Friday, July 30, 1897

Page 3, Column 7