

ETNA

Etna, April 28—John Lumbard, recently of Binghamton, died suddenly on Monday morning at the home of his brother, William Lumbard, at the age of 72 years. He is survived by two sons, Archie of Binghamton, and Glenn, who resides in a suburb of Denver, Col.; also three brothers, Archibald and William of Etna, Jay G. of Washington District; and two sisters, Mrs. J. Parkin of Ithaca and Mrs. Frank Van Tine, who lives near the Brick school house. The funeral will be held at the residence of his brother, William Lumbard, Thursday, at 2 p. m.

The Christian Endeavor society will hold a supper and a sale at the Etna hall on Friday evening of this week. The supper will be ready at 6 o'clock and will continue until all are served. All are most cordially invited to the supper and to patronize the sale. The proceeds will be applied to the fund for improving the church building.

Several of the relatives of Mrs. Frank Van Tine attended a birthday party in her honor on Sunday.

Albert Locke and his family are moving into Mrs. Locke's house this week.

Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Chaffee are to open business at the stand in the Pine Woods next week.

Louis Hart is having his barn shingled.

Archibald and William Lumbard attended the funeral of Mrs. M. J. Moe in Groton Wednesday.
