
The Dead Honored.

Yesterday afternoon the funeral of Sanford Lumbard was held at the First Baptist Church. The altar was beautifully adorned with flowers worked into exquisite designs, and on the coffin rested wreaths of white flowers entwined with green. Before the appointed hour of service the church was well filled. A very impressive sermon was preached by Rev. Dr. Stone. A large procession followed the remains to their final resting place in Lindenwood.

Fort Wayne Daily Gazette

Fort Wayne, IN

Thursday, October 4, 1877

Page 4, Column 4