

Clandestine Marriage.

SAN JOSE, May 13.—At 12 o'clock last night James V. Martin of Los Angeles and Miss Lizzie L. Marshall of this city were married at the office of County Clerk Ashmore by a Justice of the Peace. The marriage was clandestine and created quite a sensation when made public to-day. Martin is the son of the late Ed Martin of the Hibernia Bank and a nephew of ex-Governor Downey. The father of the bride is a well-to-do Puget sound lumberman.

[The above dispatch is in error regarding Mr. Martin's residence. He lived with a relative in this city until recently, when his health compelled him to seek a change in a ranch life. He made frequent visits to Los Angeles, which may have led to the mistake. He is reputed to be very wealthy, a fortune having been left him by his father. While in the city he was engaged in the liquor business of E. Martin & Co. He is a very stylish young man and well known in society. His hasty marriage will doubtless occasion as great a surprise in this city as it did at San Jose.]

San Francisco Chronicle

San Francisco, CA
Thursday, May 14, 1885

Page 3, Column 5