

Mr. and Mrs. LaVerne Cotanch and their daughter Evelyn called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Cotanch on Tuesday.

The Memory club met on Thursday at the hall. In spite of the rain there were 18 in attendance, as follows: Ezra Puderbaugh of Schenectady, George Sager of Elmira, Mrs. Cora Sager of Waverly, Edwin Heffron of Auburn, Will Corcoran and Fred Gifford of Cortland, Mrs. Hattie Foster, Mrs. Mattie Bloomer and Fred Macey of Dryden. Etna was represented by Mrs. Stella Brundage, Misses Veda and Edna Snyder, Miss Nan Pinckney, Mrs. Roaine Lumbard, Mrs. Maude Davis, Mrs. Carrie Lumbard, Mrs. Lena Hall and Mrs. Hattie Warner. To the great disappointment of all present, Mr. Wilbur was not able to attend on account of his health. This is the only meeting he has missed attending since the formation of the club.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Hallock visited relatives in Rochester recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Arch Lumbard left on Friday for a trip to the Thousand Islands, returning home Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. William Lumbard were run into by a car Sunday evening, as they were walking along by the concrete wall near the cemetery. Mrs. Lumbard sustained some severe bruises and one of Mr. Lumbard's arms was quite badly hurt, but it is thought that the injuries are not of a serious nature.

The Cortland Democrat

Cortland, NY

Friday, August 20, 1926