

MRS. ARCHIBALD LUMBARD

Mrs. Edith Tichenor Lumbard, who has for some time been failing in health, passed away early Sunday morning at her home in this village, at the age of 52. She is survived by her husband, Archibald Lumbard; her mother, Mrs. Senora Tichenor of Waverly; one son, LaVerne Lumbard; one daughter, Mrs. LaVerne Cotanch of Groton; one grandson, Merwin Lumbard. Also two sisters, Mrs. L. W. Hemingway of Elmira, and Mrs. Hattie Herlihy of Waverly, and three brothers, Ernest Tichenor of Buffalo, and Edward and Leland Tichenor of Waverly.

The whole community is saddened by the death of this most estimable woman. This sorrow is greatly augmented by the serious illness of Mr. Lumbard, who is still in the Ithaca hospital in a critical condition.

Mrs. Lumbard was a life long resident of the town of Dryden and for the last five years had lived in this village where she was identified with every work. She was a woman of strong character, a cheerful disposition and a warm heart. Energetic and efficient, she was a worker in the best sense of the word. She will be greatly missed, not only by her family, to whom she was a tower of strength, and to whom she gave her heart's deepest devotion, but also by the whole community. She was an active member of the W. C. T. U. and the Ladies' Aid society. She served her country in time of war, soliciting for Liberty bonds and for the Red Cross.

The funeral was held at the church on Tuesday afternoon with a very large attendance. Rev. E. E. Knapp, pastor of the church, paid a glowing tribute to her life and character. The floral offerings were profuse and exceptionally beautiful. The W. C. T. U., the Ladies' Aid, the Delta Chi society, the village school, the neighbors with whom she was associated for many years on Mount Pleasant all contributed, besides the many relatives and friends. The W. C. T. U. and Ladies' Aid attended in a body. A large concourse of friends accompanied the body to its last resting place in Willow Glen cemetery.

Among those who attended the funeral from out of town were Mrs. Selora Tichenor, Mrs. Hattie Herlihy and her sons, William, Gordon and Thomas, and her daughter Erma, Mr and Mrs. William Thrasher, Edward and Leland Tichenor of Waverly; Mr. and Mrs. Leo W. Hemingway and son Bertram of Elmira; Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Lumbard, Mr. and Mrs. John Parkin, Mr. and Mrs. Alvah Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. John Solomon, Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Parkin and Mrs. Mary Hungerford of Ithaca; Mr. and Mrs. Erie Tichenor, Mrs. Morey, Mr. and Mrs. LaVerne Cotanch, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson VanMarter, Mrs. Grace Goodwin of Groton; Mr. and Mrs. Ben Weyant and Mrs. Arch Chatfield of Dryden; Mr. and Mrs. Al Sherwood and L. H. Dunham of McLean; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Parkin of Cortland; Mrs. Ellagene Snyder and Mrs. Charles Morris of Ithaca; Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Lumbard, Mrs. James Lumbard, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Sutfin, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Sager of Washington District; Ralph VanTine of Auburn; John Lumbard of Binghamton; Newton Lumbard of Ketchumville, and Mr. and Mrs. George Parkin of Lansing. The bearers were six nephews of Mrs. Lumbard, viz: R. R. Lumbard, Bertram Hemingway, William Herlihy, Gordon Herlihy, Kenneth Parkin and LeRoy Parkin.
