

LOMBARD. Marshall Lyman Lombard, 85, died Jan. 23, 1984 at Vernon Manor after living at 7 Berr Ave., Ellington, for several years with his daughter Nancy and her family. Born in Colebrook, N.H., he was a graduate of Phillip Exeter Academy, Dartmouth College, and Tuck Graduate School of Business. He was an executive with the Western Electric Co., retired from the Personnel Organization, 222 Broadway, New York City in 1963. He was the president of the New York Chapter of the Telephone Pioneers, active as a deacon and elder of the Central Presbyterian Church of Summit, N.J., and president of the Men's Bible Group. He was a member of the Kappa Kappa Kappa Fraternity, and a free mason of Evening Star Lodge No. 37. He is survived by four grandsons, a granddaughter, and two great-grandchildren.

The Hartford Courant

Hartford, CT

Wednesday, January 25, 1984

Page 20, Column 3