

' #

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Smith announce the engagement of their daughter Jessie to Benjamin Lombard, son of Mrs. Mary Tongue Lombard. The news, known to a number of friends for some time, was told informally last week end at a gathering of younger folk at the Smith home. Mr. Lombard, who is in business in Seattle, was in Portland for the Christmas holiday. Miss Smith is well known in younger circles, is a member of Junior league and active in dramatic groups here. She attended St. Helen's hall and the Oaksmere school in New York, later studying at Reed college and the University of Washington. Mr. Lombard attended the University of Washington also. No definite date has been set for the wedding.

#

Oregonian

Portland, OR

Wednesday, December 30, 1931

Page 8, Column 2