As composing room superintendent, he was responsible for keeping a smooth flow of news and advertising materials going through the department to the pressroom. Colleagues at his retirement remembered him as always having a pleasant smile and cheerful attitude despite the pressures of the job.

Following retirement, he and his wife traveled extensively around the United States in a camper for some years. There were security guards at Kannenberg Plaza in Wausau. Mr. Schulrud enjoyed swimming and golfing.

Survivors besides his wife include a son, Richard, Milwaukee; a daughter, Mrs. Don (Joyce) Schubring, Wausau; two brothers, LeRoy Lombard, King, Wis., and Earl Lombard, Wausau; a sister, Mrs. Ray (Mildred) Marks, Chino, Calif.; eight grandchildren and six great-grandchildren. A brother and sister died earlier.

Services will be at 8 p.m. today at Peterson Funeral Home, Wausau. The Rev. Richard Krenz of Immanuel Baptist Church, Wausau, will officiate. Burial will be in Restlawn Memorial Park, Wausau. Friends may call from 6 p.m. today until time of services at the funeral home.
