
TWO BROTHERS WHO STOLE AUTO BACK IN PRISON

Lake Park, Ia.—Special: Andrew and Leonard Lombard, who were arrested at Ashburn, Ga., with a stolen car, the property of Fred Bergendahl, Lake Park, have been returned to the penitentiary at Anamosa, from which they were on parole.

Andrew was committed to Anamosa under the old sentence and Leonard was taken before Judge Lovrien, Pocahontas, on several check charges. Judge Lovrien sentenced him to 10 years in Anamosa.

Both worked in the southern part of Dickinson county last fall and had been on parole since October, 1928.

The Sioux County Journal

Sioux City, IA

Tuesday, January 28, 1930

Page 3, Column 2