

Miss Flora Ethel Dean and Mr. Frank Murry Lombard were united in marriage at 8 o'clock last night in the Central Presbyterian Church, the Rev. Henry Elliott Mott performing the ceremony. The church was tastefully trimmed with palms and lilies, the bride's favorite flower. Bunches of lilies tied with ribbon marked the seats reserved for the guests. The maids were Miss Jessie Louise Dean and Miss Helen Ruby Lombard. Mr. Ralph Earle Lombard of Springfield, Mass., was the best man and Mr. Louis Horace Shipman was the groomsman. The ushers were Mr. Leslie H. Taylor, Mr. Henry E. Mann, Mr. Frank I. Parker and Mr. Charles A. Barton. The maids and the groomsmen entered the church first from opposite sides and walked to the altar up the side aisles. There they joined and returned to the front door, where they met the bride and escorted her to the altar. The ushers, followed by the groom and Dr. Mott, walked last in the procession. The bride was gowned in white satin made with train and veil. She carried a single white lily. The maids wore white mousseline de sole, one over pink and one over blue. They carried bouquets of maidenhair ferns. The ceremony was followed by a reception to the bridal party and a few intimate friends at The Niagara. Guests from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Lombard of Springfield, Mass., Mr. William Johnstone of Sariborn, N. Y., Mrs. Theodore F. Shipman of Sayre, Pa., Mr. and Mrs. William Adams, Miss Teeter and Miss Elsie Teeter of Smithville, Ont. Later in the evening Mr. and Mrs. Lombard left on a trip through Massachusetts. They will be at home on Thursday in August at No. 17 Johnson Park.

The Buffalo Express

Buffalo, NY

Wednesday, June 23, 1897

Page 7, Column 1