

---

Finding Of Boat Spurs Hunt For Man's Body

KLAMATH FALLS (Ore.), July 26.—The search for the body of Ralph M. Pray, local architect and builder, was spurred here today in the discovery last night of a partially submerged canvas boat near the west shore of Upper Klamath Lake.

Pray disappeared Wednesday afternoon while on a fishing trip with R. F. McLaren. The boat was found a few hundred feet off shore by a group of boys seven miles north of Howard Bay, where Pray left his companion to go for more fishing tackle.

---

The Sacramento Bee

Sacramento, CA

Friday, July 26, 1940

Page 7, Column 1