
Dorothy Pray Weds Hugh White Proctor

In a quiet wedding ceremony read at high noon at St. Francis chapel of the Mission Inn, Riverside, Miss Dorothy Elizabeth Pray, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Charles S. Lombard, 162 The Terrace, Redlands, became the bride of Hugh White Proctor, Coachella.

The Rev. Henry Clark Smith, pastor of the Episcopal church of Riverside, officiated at the wedding.

Miss Pray, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of periwinkle blue, with a small hat of royal blue. A corsage of white orchids and bouvardia completed her costume.

Miss Virginia Bailard, Carpenteria, the bride's only attendant, wore a royal blue gown, with a small black hat trimmed in sequins. Her corsage was of gardenias. Dr. John Tyler, Indio, was best man, and William Cowan, Altadena, ushered.

The couple will make their home in Coachella, where the bridegroom has ranching and business interests.
