
ACTOR CUMMINGS AND HIS YOUNG WIFE PART.

LOS ANGELES.—Blanche Douglas, the beautiful girl-wife of Ralph Cummings, the actor, has finally left him, and the Cummings company will know her no more.

The marital and dramatic troubles of the Cummingses provided material for much comment during the early part of the Cummings season at the Burbank, they being due to a three-cornered fracas in which Cummings, his wife and Laura Nelson Hall, the company's leading woman, figured.

It was left to be inferred that Cummings had transferred the major part of his interest in the fair sex to Miss Hall.

Mrs. Cummings is now in San Francisco. It is announced that she will appear in a leading role with the Florence Roberts company at the Alcazar theater.

Mrs. Cummings formerly resided in Santa Cruz, her parents keeping the Douglas House on Beach Hill.
