

---

ROMANTIC DOUBLE MARRIAGE

---

The countless friends of Mr. Roswell Lombard and Miss Anne Schmidt of this city, and Mr. Jack Barrett, of Augusta, and Miss Ruth Thompson, of Matthews, Ga., will be greatly interested to learn of the marriage of Mr. Lombard to Miss Schmidt, and of Mr. Barrett to Miss Thompson. The romantic double-wedding occurred at one o'clock Sunday, in Wrens, Ga., and the ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Kerr, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church in Wrens. The rumors of this double wedding reached Augusta Sunday night, but was not definitely verified until yesterday, when Mr. and Mrs. Lombard and Mr. and Mrs. Barret returned to the city.

The marriage of Mr. Barrett and Miss Thompson had been previously announced to take place Sunday, and Mr. Lombard and Miss Schmidt, who are close friends of the other couple, were to motor down to the wedding, their own marriage having been planned for a later date. But Sunday morning the latter couple decided they would be married at the same time their friends did, so a license was procured at Louisville, Ga., and the four young people motored to Wrens, where they were married by Mr. Kerr. After the ceremony they drove to the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Lombard, on the Deans Bridge Road, where they were entertained with a delightful family dinner, and where they remained until yesterday afternoon, when they drove to Augusta and announced the marriage to their respective families and received the sincere congratulations of their many friends.

Mrs. Roswell Lombard is the youngest daughter of Mrs. C. T. Schmidt, of 444 Walker Street. She is a beautiful and charming girl, and is noted for her artistic talents, as she is one of the most exquisite dancers in the state and has a lovely soprano voice. She is cordially admired and loved by all who know her. Mr. Lombard is a son of Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Lombard, and a brother of Mrs. Tyrus Raymond Cobb. He is a very popular young man with many friends, who are overwhelming him now with congratulations.

Mrs. Jack Barrett is one of Matthew's greatest bells, and is a beautiful and lovable young woman, and one who will be cordially welcomed here. Mr. Barrett is a well-known and highly esteemed young business man, and is associated with his brothers in the contracting business. He is a son of Mrs. Martha Barrett, of Fenwick Street, and he and his bride are receiving many congratulations.

Mr. and Mrs. Lombard will be with the bride's mother, on Walker Street, until she goes to visit her son in Jacksonville, when the young couple will go to Mr. Lombard's home on the Dean's Bridge Road.

---

Augusta Chronicle
Augusta, GA
Tuesday, October 31, 1916